BUILDING TIE-UP COMPLETE

MASON BUILDERS PLEDGE SUP. PORT TO DEALERS.

They Say It Is a Fight Against Union Domination of Building Industry of the City-No Material to Be Bought Except of the Dealers' Associations

The Mason Builders' Association has decided to stand by the Lumber Dealers' and Building Materia: Dealers' associations in their fight against union domination The mason builders say that if these two associations yield and allow their yards to be unionized it will place the entire building trade at the mercy of the Board of Building Trades and might cause a paralysis of the building industry at any time one of the affiliated unions of the board made

The Mason Builders' Association held meeting late on Friday night at the Building Trades Club to consider the situation. About 100 members were present, representing $60,000,000 or more of invested capital. Representatives of the Lumber Dealers Association, the Brick Manufacturers' Association and the Building Material Dealers' Association and of the trades unions were present and there was some very plain talk. These resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, The Material Dealers' Association and the Association of Lumber Dealers ave closed their yards as a defensive measure gainst aggression that points unerringly to determination on the part of organized abor to dictate as to whom, by whom and manner material shall be handled and delivered, thereby controlling the source of supply and closing the circuit of union ation in the building industry of this

Resolved, That no member of the Mason Builders' Association shall contract for or recept building material from any firm or Endvidual not a member of one or other of said dealers' associations, until the termination of this centest for domination on the one hand and self-preservation on the other. A former officer and prominent member the Mason Builders' Association said of the Mason Builders' Association said yesterday to a Sun reporter:

"The United Board of Building Trades has put itself in a false position by taking up the fight to get the wages of mechanics for unskilled men. Everything is shut down in New York in the building line, except on a few buildings which are nearly finished. The builders can do nothing and the building material handlers and lumber handlers say they can handle their fight whether they have the support of the mason builders or not.

"One of the brick manufacturers said last night "The brick manufacturers do not recognize organized labor as it is understood by the union. Their wards stood by the union. Their yards are not organized and they will not be organized. organized and they will not be organized. They are run on the American principle, namely, that there will be no class domination when it comes to employing men. They will stay in this fight until it ends and will not organize their yards unless they lose the fight, but they expect to win.

"O e of the walking delegates was talking to me the other day and I asked him if he believed that the Board of Building Trades was right in taking up this fight. He said candidly, 'I do not.'

"I have $3,000,000 of contracts for buildings. There is one building for which $300,000 worth of goods has been purchased for sale on the understanding that the build-

If it is not finished then, the season, being a short one, will be spoiled and he will not get 50 cents on the dollar for the goods which he has bought. In that case I will have to pay a heavy forfeit."

Plasterers' laborers are now out for a demand for $3.50 a day. Last week they made an agreement with the Employing Plasterers' Association by which they were to get $3.50 a day on May 18, their present wages of $3.25 a day to remain in the meantime. This argeement was not accepted by the union.

SMALLPOX GUARDS STRIKE. Quarantine Raised While the Watchers

Demand an Increase of Pay. LANDSPORD, Pa., May 9 -- The most peculiar strike that has occurred in the coal regions the last two years was declared here last evening when the guards at the houses that are in quarantine because of the existence of smallpox in the families occupying them, went on strike because the Board of Health refused to grant them an increase from $2.50 to $3.00 per day.

The guards left their posts, and any person was free to go into or come out of the quarantined houses. When the Board of Health heard of this condition of affairs, a meeting was called and the guards got the increase they demanded.

ITALIAN RIOTERS SENTENCED. Men Concerned in the Greenwich Attack

on Laborers Go to Jell. GREENWICH, Conn., May 9 .- The heaviest entences possible were dealt out to-day by Judge C. D. Burnes in the Greenwich Borough Court to the leaders in the strike among he Italians which resulted in a riot at Field Point Park yesterday, upon the property of Edward Shearson, the New York' banker. The workman who was molested by the crowd and who shot one of the leaders of the strikers was discharged upon the representation of the prosecuting attorney.

Antonio Barelli and Santo Ambrosio made the first demands for an increase of wages from Contractor Larsen, who had a large gang grading on the new place of Gustav Baumann. They sat on the tool box and stopped the men from getting their tools. They were paid off and ordered to leave. By threats and violence they induced a score of the laborers to strike and follow them to the place of H. L. Thompson, where Contractor Christiano had a put up their tools, which they did. Fifty strong then they went to Mr. Shearson's place, where they were met by Contractor J. T. Weir' and Foreman Braun. They warned the mob to keep off the place, but they raised pickaxes and clubs and attempted to strike Mr. Weir. He retreated, and and at the house it to the heart of the heart and sent his men into the cellar of the house Many stopped work when they saw the pro-cession, headed by Salerno with a red flag on a lead gas pipe. One man, Jacco Lac-caquies, refused to join the strikers. He was seized, hit with the clubs and pipe and bruised. As he fell down he drew his revolver and shot Nicola Bruno in the abdomen. He was in danger of being killed when Mr. Hamilton and two of the Italians came to his rescue and held him until Sheriff Ritch arrived.

This broke the strike. Deputy Sheriff W. E. Ritch and Deputy Sheriff Louis Richards of Bridgeport scoured the town and arrested sixteen others, all of whom were brought into court to-day and all told their stories. Barelli and Ambrosio were each sentenced to a year's imprisonment. Salerno got six months. Pasquale Morello and Peter Magria each got three months. Three were discharged and $20 in fines and costs were paid by Marino Francesco, Marino Pasquale, Damedrio Tripio, Calvano Pellegrino, Ama-deo Filippo, Martino Francesco, Martino Demetrio and Gaelano Luca.

Max Roth Employees in Stamford Flour the Idea of Striking.

STAMFORD, Conn., May 9 -- An effort vas made last evening to form into a union the employees of the Max Roth shirtwaist factory here, Jacob Penkin and Thomas Dorney, delegates of the Women Waistmakers, Union of New York, were behind the effort. The delegates went to the neighborhood of the factory, in lower Pacific street, and took up a position where they could intercept the girls as they left the place.

The men met with a reception that sur prised them. Their proposition to attend a meeting in the evening for the purpose of Meetings were held in the Building Trades Club yesterday afternoon by the Employing Roofers' Association and the Electrical Contractors' Association. The last

Some of the more mischievous of the girls pinned papers cut in ridiculous shapes on the clothing of the delegates. Others advised them that it would be foolish for them to spend any money for hall hire, as they would have no one to attend the meeting.

spend any money for hall hire, as they would have no one to attend the meeting.

The Max Roth concern has factories in New York, Danbury, Spring Valley, N. Y., and this city. Two or three weeks ago 300 women and men employed in the New York concern went out on strike. Efforts have been made ever since to spread the strike to the other factories. Mr. Roth said this noon that the places of all the strikers have been filled in New York. In Danbury Mr. Roth stole a march on his employees by locking them out. When he learned they were about to go on strike he closed down the factory. By this action 150 girls were thrown out of employment. The factory at Spring Valley gives employ-The factory at Spring Valley gives employment to about the same number.

St. Louis, May 9 .- A strike was declared at 9:30 o'clock this morning by the conductors, brakemen, yardmen and baggagemen of the Mobile and Ohio Railway. All of them employed between St. Louis and Mobile walked out. There are no locoplaces between St. Louis and Mobile stating motive drivers at Ballarat, Bendigo and that the men had walked out promptly at the appointed hour.

At the first canvass, no hour was selected for the strike to begin, but at a later ballot 9:30 was the hour designated, and at that time all employees stopped work. It is expected that the strike will entirely block the service of the road. Experienced railroad men think that it will be impossible for the company to secure laborers and trainmen to take the places of those who have walked out. The management of the railroad issued a statement from headquarters here to the effect that the men went out without giving them any notice of their intention. The company expects to run its trains, but it admits that there may be some delay.

WORK IN THE ANTARCTIC. Interesting Reports From the Members of the British Expedition. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN LONDON, May 9.-Private letters from the officers and crew of the steamship Discovery bring interesting accounts of the work accomplished by the British National Antarctic expedition under Capt. Scott. Dr. Koettlitz brings out the important fact that the eating of seal meat is a preventive of scurvy. He says:

"Scurvy showed itself last spring, but we have, by making more use of seal meat as food, got rid of it. Scott, among others, was affected after the long journey to the southward, but he rapidly threw it off. The supply of seal meat here is practically unlimited, and can be obtained with comparative ease. Therefore those who keep heir appetite for it are safe."

Capt. Scott, R. M., the commander of the Discovery, writes: "We are in considerable anxiety over our prospects of getting out this season. We found one year's ice here last season. It broke away, and a spot remained open for at least six weeks. It is now past that date, and little ice has gone out. The season is evidently very bad, and therefore we are getting all the stores we can from the relief ship Morning, hoping to send her back to New Zealand in a week or two.

"All remain as well as possible. It would be difficult to imagine a happier or more comfortable community, considering how closely we have been thrown together.'

As nothing has been heard of the Discovery since May, it is taken for granted that she has been shut up for another season. One of the scientific staff summarizes the work up to date as follows: First, the discovery of extensive land at the east extremity of the great ice barrier; secondly, that McMurdo Bay is not a bay, but a strait, and that Mounts Erebus and Terror form a part of a comparatively small island; thirdly, the discovery of good winter quarters in the high latitude of 77° 50' S., 166° 42' E. longitude, where the lowest temperature was 92 degrees frost. Fahrenheit fourthly, that in the extensive sledge journeys of thousands of miles, notably in Scott's, when latitude 82° 17' S. was attained, an immense tract of new land was discovered and charted as far as 83° 30' S., with peaks and ranges of mountains as high as 14,000 feet: fifthly, that great continental inland ice was reached westward at a considerable distance from the coast, and at an altitude of 9,000 feet, and, sixthly, that much magnetic work, soundings, deepsea dredging, physical and biological work were done.

Another letter from a member of the party says: "You do not feel the cold much vithout the wind, but the blizzards are fearful. Mr. Bernacchi and an engineer went to a hut fifty yards away and, although they were roped from the hut to he ship, they were lost in the blizzard for wo and three-quarter hours."

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUS LONDON, May 9 .- A firm here has purchased at Oporto upward of 2,000 pipes port wine, which includes samples the finest vintages since 1870. This is the largest private contract ever made of "It was the first Sunday night spent at the hospital. I walked out on the porch and found Dr. Grant sitting at the side talking to Miss Dingle. I stayed a minute only, but went to a drug store to fill out several prescriptions. Upon returning I gave the patients their medicine, and stepping into the reception room after the time for the lights to be out I found Dr. Grant and Miss Dingle still there. Grant's testimony that I bobbed in and out of the room is not true." old wine from Oporto. Some 30,000 pipes of port are sold every year in England. This recent transaction means that 1,400,-000 bottles of port will be placed on the market within a month.

Port has been conspicuously coming into favor again, and, after champagne, is the wine now most sought after. Since 1878 the port vintages have been full-bodied. owing to the new system of vine grafting which came into vogue in that year. These vintages have produced a port that matures in twelve instead of twenty years. Marchants, however, complain generally that wine drinking is declining daily, and that many wealthy and fashionable people are substituting spirits and soda for their dinner instead of champagne.

POPE ADMIRED KAISER'S SONS. Boy.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. ROME, May 9.—The Pope displayed great interest during the recent visit of the Kaiser to Italy and spoke freely about it, especially in regard to the young royal Princes. The Pope was particularly affected by Prince Eitel, whom he took by the hand and, gently patting it, said: "You must be about the age of my godson, Alphonso of Spain, whom I shall never see." He added sadly: "He is a dear boy, but not so strong and tall and bello (bonny) as this bambino little boy." Prince Eitel's fair skin flushed, much to the amusement of the Pope, who laughed benignly. When the visit of the Kaiser and his sons was over the Pope remarked: "Those are boys to be proud of, but six! How is it the Emperor can look so young?" Prince Eitel is now being unmercifully chaffed by his brother, who has told the story and dubs Eitel "Il Bel Bambino" (the pretty little boy), which sounds terrible in the ears of a soldier of 19, though he may find some consolation in reflecting that the Pope referred to the Kaiser as a Giovanotto youth and to the Crown Prince as "Il bambino piu grande" (the eldest
